You Alone by Echoing Angels

I'm desperately wanting
To just find a way
I'm searching and seeking
For someone to say
That it's all right
And it's okay
Like I know you can
That it's all right and it's okay
Like I know you can

(Chorus):
You alone are God
I am yours and you're mine
And I know the heavens will call out your name if I don't

I close my eyes
And drift away
To a place I remember
To a place I feel safe
Where it's all right, and it's okay
Cause I'm there in your arms
Where it's all right and it's okay
Cause I'm there in your arms

Chorus:
You alone are God
I am yours and you're mine
And I know the heavens will call out your name
Yes I know the heavens will call out your name

You forgive me
You accept me
Just as I am
And you love me
And you want me
To understand
I'm yours, you are mine
And I will worship you yeah

Chorus:
Worship you alone are God
I am yours and you're mine
And I know the heavens will call out your name
If I don't (Yeah yeaah)

Chorus:

You alone are God
I am yours and you're mine
And I know the heavens will call out your name
Yes I know the heavens will call out your name
And with all the heavens I worship you alone
You alone are God
